Midland Community Former Offenders Advocacy and Rehabilitation (MCFOAR) has a mission to reduce the crime rate of former offenders in the Midland County area and make the community a safer place. We help ex-offenders upon release and provide them with necessary tools to aid in their transition back into society. This program is available to all former offenders who reside in the Midland County area. We aid in areas of housing, food assistance, medical and mental health referral, employment readiness, clothing, addiction issues and mentoring services.
